COACHTRAVELLER
Magazine

Welcome Aboard

We are back with yet another exciting edition of our CoachTraveller Magazine! We hope you have enjoyed the days out and trips away we have had running since the beginning of the year. Our team are delighted to be able to provide you with what's coming up for the remainder of 2019, plus see what we have coming up in 2020...

Our new look brochure is now old news, but is as popular as ever and packed full of trips for 2019 and 2020. Not only are we offering some of our most popular Day Trips, Short Breaks and Holidays but in this edition we have a number of brand-new outings for you to peruse.

In this latest edition we are delighted to be able to offer a variety of Warner Leisure holidays. As they are so popular we have taken the opportunity to present a selection of their hotels and villages around the UK, including historic houses and coastal hideaways.

Another new feature trip is to Potters Resort in Norfolk for a mid-week break. That means 4-nights on an unashamedly full board basis of four meals a day including a midnight dish of the day! There is live entertainment every night and a vast range of 'get up and go' or 'sit back and relax' activities to suit all needs and tastes.

We also head back to Austria for one of our favourite trips, a 7-night break staying in Mayrhofen at the Neue Post Hotel decorated in true Tyrolean style. Price includes excursions to Tratzberg Castle, a cruise on Lake Achen and also a journey on the Lake Achen Cog Railway.

Inside this brochure you will find all Day Trips running from July to December and a couple of additional Holidays for you to squeeze in this year. However, to give you more time to see what we have on offer, details of our 2020 Short Breaks and Holidays are for the entire year. That means more time to book a fantastic break! As we have done in this edition, additional trips will be added for late 2020 in the next brochure. Plus, if you book 6 months in advance with your loyalty card you get 5% discount!

New  Favourite

Revised

Keep an eye out for these symbols as you browse through our brochure, showing you all the new trips we have on offer. We also have some old favourites and some revised itineraries included.

A welcome from our MD

Hello everyone and welcome to the second edition to our 2019 brochure. Hopefully there will be a mix of some of our favourite trips along with some new ones to whet the appetite. Yet again, Simone has put together a very impressive brochure, all whilst being on maternity leave. I'm sure everyone will appreciate the hard work she has put into it and I'm extremely grateful to her for her dedication to this side of the business.

One thing that we are going to try to focus on in 2020 and beyond are Warner Leisure Holidays. Our Isle of Wight trip was hugely successful in March and we are trying to do a whole lot more, so please keep an eye out for these.

Thanks again for taking the time to browse our brochure and I look forward to you joining us on one of our future trips.
